Collection & Use of Information: We collect information according to the principles of the Privacy Act 1993. We have a detailed Privacy of Information Code which you are welcome to read. Its provisions are summed-up in our undertaking to collect information only for the purposes of providing the services we offer, to store that information safely, to give you access to (as well as the right to request amendment of) the information we hold from you, and to keep parents fully informed of all matters relating to their child's school work and conduct. We limit the information given to pupils however. The information we request has been carefully selected because we need it: failure to supply all requested information may result in an application being declined or our services withdrawn. From time to time we send out information on our services and products: if you do not wish to receive this information please advise us.
